Mr. Bryan Certain to Name Him-Leader in Kentucky Politics Many Years,

HIGH IN PARTY'S COUNCILS.

Denver, Col., July 10 .- With Bryan ominated to the presidency, Democrats here are already picking out his chairman on the national committee, not to mention his cabinet. The chairmanship of the national committee is the second most important position connected with the campaign. It was Gorman, of Maryland, who elected Cleveland in 1884, and Harrity. Pennsylvania, contributed largely to the successful termination of the '92 Reporter. campaign. The late Senator Jones managed the '96 campaign of Mr. here and will give full information. gart, of Indiana, was placed in charge ing to the close relations which its occupant must bear to the nominee, is almost invariably given to a man selected by the presidential nominee. In the last campaign Judge Parker is understood to have preferred August Belmont for the chairmanship. The members of the committee, led by Senator Bailey, of Texas, convinced Judge Parker that Belmont's selection would not be advisable and Taggart was elected.

Will Name Chairman at Once go to Lincoln. The complexion of the committee insures that any man Mr. Bryan wants for the place will elected without division,

No one knows who the new chairsay that he is likely to select a Nebraska man; a substantial citizen not known nationally, but fully equipped can managers. It is also believed that there will be no one-man manage ment; that an advisory committee consisting of representatives of the party's best thought will be appointd and will exercise, with the presidential candidate and chairman, the power of decision upon all questions of national issue.

Woodson Can Be Secretary. bant. The position is a difficult one by's face after one bottle of White's makers, however, are putting Mr. Woodson's name down. Close friend of Mr. Bryan In proposing Mr. Woodson for retary of the national committee Mr. Bryan will not only be bonoring a close personal friend and for years staunch supporter, but one of the as tute political managers of the country. Mr. Woodson is one of the orighal if not the very first Bryan men. having suggested to the Nebraskan his availability as a candidate long be ore the 1896 convention.

He has been a recognized Demo ratic leader in Kentucky for many years, quite a quarter of a century, n point of fact. For eight years he served with distinction on the state executive and state central commitees in Kentucky, exercising inde pendence in the office, but always battling for what he conceived to be the best interests of the Democratic party.

Gets Into National Politics. By 1896 Mr. Woodson had earned is promotion to national politics and was elected national committeeman from this state, succeeding the late Col. Thomas H. Sherley. During his noumbency he has taken a leading part in the councils of the party. Afer serving the first four years his udgment was considered of such great value to the committee that he was made a member of the executive oody. As a further recognition of his intimate understanding of the political game he was elected secretary of the national committee four years ago, and will be elected again if he will accept the position, which is more than likely. His election to the committee as a member from Kentucky with no opposition for the fourth time makes Mr. Woodson the ranking member in the powerful organization.
